P/F BankNordik as systemically important financial institution in the Faroe Islands

Pursuant to paragraph 308 of the Financial Business Act,¹ the Danish Financial Supervisory Authority on a yearly basis examines whether institutions designated as systemically important financial institutions (SIFI) in the Faroe Islands still exceed the threshold values regarding one or several of the below stated indicators for being designated as a SIFI institution in the Faroe Islands.

Pursuant to paragraph 308, section 4 of the Financial Business Act, a systemically important financial institution must be below the determined threshold values of the indicators put forth below for three consecutive years in order to cease being designated as systemically important.

The Danish Financial Supervisory Authority has stated that BankNordik still exceeds all three threshold values.
